LABADOR REFRIGERATORS Ice and Food Savers

Your Milk, Soft Butter, Meat that has degraded and not fit for use, is not only a waste but a crime. Sour milk in its place is a loss, but if we have contemplated its use for dinner or breakfast and it is sour, we are not only disappointed, but it is a loss. Soft Butter may be all right for toast, but there is at least 50 per cent more used than when it is hard and solid.

When warm weather sets in, fresh meat will soon turn, it is not fit for use therefore is loss.

All these things can be corrected with a Labrador Refrigerator. Sweet milk, solid butter and fresh meat. To see one is to want it. You will at once notice the heavy baked white enamel interior, well supported shelves and strongly constructed door, fitted with a wedge lock, which keeps the door tight and saves ice. It is a piece of furniture that will last a long time, and give every member of your home a heap of satisfaction.

THE EMERGENCY

The farmers of Canada will very shortly have to undertake the harvest work with the help of green labor. In this connection they should remember that we are at war. They should adjust the work throughout the farm to suit the new conditions, and they should begin RIGHT IN THEIR OWN MINDS.

The first adjustment necessary is to change the point of view from one of criticism, discouragement, and fault-finding with labor conditions, to that of the soldier and war worker, and realize that we are going through a crisis, the most serious the world has seen or witnessed without any exaggeration whatsoever.

There used to be talk among farmers derogatory to the city man and other inexperienced laborers who sometimes sought employment temporary on the farm. Such talk is out of place now, with the Germans sixty miles from Paris and every available man in Britain and France fighting to save not only his own country but this country as well. Such Canadian farmers forget that they themselves have been farmers all their lives and in war time they can't expect to secure men volunteering from the cities with an experience in farm work equal to their own. That is an impossibility. But it is not impossible that farm production of this country be increased, despite the shortage of experienced labor. That this is true is proven by the experience of this country in the manufacture of munitions.

When the war started Canada was absolutely inexperienced, unskilled in, and without the machinery for the manufacture of munitions. But the manufacturers got to work. They studied the problem and they solved it.

Today Canada is turning out millions of dollars worth of shells every month from the largest to the smallest and the most minute mechanical contrivances in connection with fuses and time charges. Canada's record in the manufacture of munitions is one of the surprises of the war. It was not made by Canada saying "Canada can't" but by adopting the motto "Canada Can." Canada did not refuse to try because of the scarcity of labor but set to work to organize and employ men and girls who had never been inside a factory before. They accomplished the impossible. These inexperienced workers were taught their parts and the result is shown in the products of munitions from Canadian factories now known all over the world not excepting Germany.

The result of the organization and the willing wartime spirit of Great Britain is equally convincing. Great Britain last year, largely with inexperienced labor on the land increased her cereal production by 850,000 tons, its potato production by 5,000,000 tons. The cultivated area was increased altogether 1,000,000 acres. When in 1917, 820,645 men were taken from industrial organizations and placed in the army the War Office replaced them with 804,000 women and yet the production of guns was increased 30 per cent, air craft 25 per cent, while the shipping tonnage amounted to 1,165,000 tons additional.

The best recent illustration of what can be done in an emergency when only inexperienced men are available is that of the battle of Picardy, when the fifth army under General Gough was overwhelmed and outnumbered. It looked inevitable that the Hun would break through and capture the city of Amiens, which would have meant the interruption of railway communication between channel ports and Paris, cutting off Great Britain from one of their chief bases of supplies. General Carey, however, saved the situation. He called upon all classes of men behind the lines whether they were soldiers, cooks or camp followers, railway construction men, Chinese laborers, medical service men, transport men, or whatever they were and organized them to fill the breach. With these men he succeeded in doing what the 5th army failed to do—he held the line! With no training in trench warfare, and no fighting organization before that time, General Carey gathered them together and this nondescript gathering of troops kept the Huns back for six days and six nights until reinforcements arrived. General Carey did not say "I can't use this untrained class of men," but he set to work without a moment's hesitation to make the best of them, and he succeeded in saving the British army and its allies from a desperate crisis.

Similarly, if the Canadian farmer makes up his mind that these are war times and war measures are necessary there is absolutely no doubt he can utilize to a tremendous advantage the man power and the women power of the towns where people are only too willing to go to his assistance, if they are organized to do so. He must not expect them to be experienced and to know as much about the details of farm work as he does. It has taken him a lifetime to acquire his information.

Towns people have spent their lives at different work but with his knowledge of farming and his intimate acquaintance with his farm and all its needs he should have the ability to organize inexperienced help and show each helper his or her particular job and how best to accomplish it. A few hours of patient teaching in any one particular line of work will very soon enable a greenhorn to "carry on" as they say in the Army. By patience and consideration the farmers of Canada can, without question, effect an organization from green help from towns that will not only surprise themselves but will also be a tremendous benefit to the Empire by the increased results of their harvest.

POLISH UNIT LINES UP ON ALLIED SIDE

Paris, June 19—Fighting under the national flag of Poland, the first Polish regiment of the first Polish division entered the front line trenches opposite the German Tuesday.

Within the course of the roar of the cannon and in the presence of civil and military authorities the regiment received its battle flag and entered the war for the Allies.

Poles who have escaped from Germany and Poland or who have succeeded in leaving America and other countries for France, the bulk of the Polish legion which may shed its blood for liberty and the cause of humanity.

Amid an impressive scene the chaplain of the regiment, facing the troops and raising both hands above his head, gave them this oath:

"I swear, before God, before the Holy Trinity, that in allegiance to my country, I am ready to give up my life to the last drop of blood, in the service of the holy cause of Poland, to obey my chiefs and to remain true to Poland."

The Polish soldiers and officers cheered as they repeated the oath.

BROOKSIDE FARM, CLIVE

FARMERS FURIOUS FAROE

Two thousand Laurierite farmers assembled in Toronto a few weeks ago to solemnly resolve that the Governor-General should dismiss the Unionist Government because it shows a determination to win the war. Having been unable to exclude Sir Robert Borden from power in the constitutional manner by defeating him at the polls, they want to get rid of him by resolution. The movement is no absolutely futile that it is a wonder any farmer who voted for the Unionists should be found amongst them. Apparently there were a few, as was the case at Ottawa recently. E. C. Drury and W. L. Smith are beautiful specimens of independent agriculturists. Men who can find it possible to follow their lead will never add to the patriotism of Canada. The reason for the gathering was to stir up opposition to those who are giving Canada leadership in the national extremity. They spent two or three days in Toronto in a senseless agitation, when they should have been working on the land. That's the kind of thing partisanship drives men to do. Not one of them expected any result from the meeting beyond raising a clamor against the Government. The speeches sounded the one note of selfishness. That kind of appeal will not touch the sturdy farmers of Ontario who are doing their duty at this time. Why shouldn't the farmer follower of Laurier send his son to the war as well as the loyal men whose boys have gone long ago to fight for the liberties of Canada.

The suggestion that there has been discrimination against the farming class is as false as it is futile. More consideration has been given them than any other section of the population. The fair minded men in the rural district know that. They did not join in the demonstration at Toronto because they know that at a time like this every man must do his duty.

If the intention was to make it appear that the Ontario farmers, as a class, are opposed to the Government, the meeting was a lamentable failure. The balloting last December showed where the farmers of Ontario stood, and it was not with Laurier, as he expected. They are clear headed, intelligent, and loyal men. It has never been possible to stampede them by appeals to selfishness. It is not possible to do it to-day.

The sincerity of the movement was put to the test by an appeal to subscribe for $50 shares in a company to publish a farmers' daily paper. When those who were willing to subscribe were asked to stand, about fifty of the two thousand rose to their feet. This brought from the chairman the remark that there was only enough pledged to get out the first issue. Talk is cheap as the fervor of the speeches showed, but it takes money to run a newspaper, and the delegates were not willing to back their resolutions with their accounts. No clearer evidence could be given of the purely partisan political purposes of meeting.

There were fiery denunciations of the press because their views were not represented. But while they were shouting protests at the Globe and Mail they were not rushing subscriptions to the Weekly Sun which is in each issue printing all the pacifist bosh that any friend of Laurier would possibly desire. The farmers of Ontario are cruelly misrepresented by these agitators, and nobody knows it better than the men who are trying so desperately to mislead them.

The Bentley Bi-Monthly Bulletin

THORPUS SECUNDUS, Editor. A. D. MILLER, Class Teacher.
Issued in the interests of those from this district who are on active service. By the Young Men's Class.

The Young Men's Class are sustaining a great loss just now in the departure of Mr. Miller from Bentley. We feel that he has been a great asset not only to the Church interests here, but to the community at large, and everything that concerned the welfare of our fellows "over there" claimed his special attention. It was he who organized the Class and later suggested and promoted the twice monthly Bulletin, and we feel that we should be paying him poor respect were we to allow the Class to disband or the Bulletin to cease publication. His farewell message to us is to "carry on" over here, as ably if that were possible as you chaps are "over there."

Now that the Bulletin is published in the Local Paper and read by the folks at home, we are stating for their benefit, that it has now been issued regularly for nearly a year in which time 200 copies have been circulated along the fighting line in France and the various camps and hospitals in England. Where ever you fellows were, we trust they have found you every time.

TEACHER'S TALK

It has come our time to bid the Bentley People goodbye, and also as far as the Bulletin is concerned, say good bye to you. I trust however that I shall hear from you from time to time in different ways, and any letters you care to write me, will be very welcome. Should you care to visit us upon your return at our new home in Morley you will be "as welcome as the flowers in May". The editor will tell you about the beautiful watch presented to me by the B.Y.M.C. The class did not need to do that to ensure a place in my memory. I shall continue to watch with deep interest for news of the future careers of all the members of the Class and I wish you all the best success and happiness.

BENTLEY BREEZES

The Co-operative Society is still in the talking stage. Fool-proof finance being the main topic up for discussion. C. F. Dameron and Bert Thorpe led a meeting in their interests at Lockhart last week. Prevaricators prognosticate that the latter participation, preambles preoccupation of the managerial chair.

The "Dinky" or "22 short" engine No 1, on L. & B. V. R. has had a new coat of paint attached to its exterior and looks perfectly charming. The Electric Car after a few trips to Lacombe and back again balked, and the "Dinky" is still the old reliable.

LOCAL NOTES

Serge Maj. O'Neill was in Bentley visiting with his friends on and around the 24th of May. He is at present stationed in Calgary, training those boys who were called up recently, among whom are many from Bentley and district.

We are having a pretty dry time just now and rain is needed badly but more so in other parts of Alberta than right here. The cut worms are doing considerable damage in spots, some farmers having lost from 30 to 40 acres from these pests.

A farewell surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Miller last Friday night and a representative audience from all parts of the valley attended.

The Ladies Aid presented Mrs. Miller with an everwear aluminum cooking utensil and the Gull Lake Helping Hand gave her two pieces of fancy china in remembrance of her work amongst them. The young men's class presented Mr. Miller with a Gold Watch, suitably engraved, in recognition of his services here.

When you fellows write us, be sure and give your last address as we want to keep our mailing list up to date.

GET IN YOUR COAL

There is going to be a shortage of coal next winter in the Province of Alberta, owing to the fact that Manitoba has been guaranteed its requirements from this Province, thus relieving the United States of the necessity of shipping coal there. Everyone in the district should get in a supply of coal during the summer months, and the avoidance of serious hardships next winter rests entirely with the people of the Province. The coal miners have guaranteed to supply all the coal required, and the railway companies to transport it between now and the end of September, but after that time no guarantee can be given. Very little coal will be available between October, 1918 and March, 1919.

To those looking for something extra good in suitings, we are now showing a special line of samples. Ranging from $45.00 and $55. These are high prices, but we know that the goods offered will not be obtainable at any price shortly. See them. D. Cameron, next to Post Office, Lacombe.

At the Rex

Red Cross Night, Thursday, another great Triangle feature will be on the screen. Miss Ella Simpson will have charge of the music as usual.

On Saturday and Monday, Mary Miles Minter will be here in "The Innocence of Lisette".
Next Tuesday, the beautiful Florence LeBadie will star in "The War and the Woman".
These are all first releases.

At the Veteran

Never before has such a collection of notable cow-boys appeared in a motion picture as is displayed in Douglas Fairbanks' new Artercraft picture, "The Man from Painted Post," coming to the Veteran theatre soon. All the cow-boys appearing in this picture are winners of championships in roping, shooting and other Western sports. In addition to these experts are seven very bucking broncos used in the recent frontier meet at Cheyenne, Wyo. All of which promises excitement for all who will view popular Douglas' new photoplay.

Prarie Rose, who holds many medals for trick riding and roping appears in the new Fairbanks Artercraft picture, "The Man from Painted Post," coming to the Veteran Theatre soon. There are very few western cowboys such as the Pendleton Roundup, the Cheyenne Frontier Day Celebration and the Golden City Show that do not feature Prarie Rose in their billing as "The West's Real Product." Rose is the wife of John Judd, champion rope spinner and broncho buster, who also plays an important part in Douglas' new photoplay of the western plains during the cattle rustling days.

Vivian Martin, the clever Morosco Paramount star who will be seen at the Veteran Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday June 26 and 27 in the interesting story of boarding school life, "Giving Becky a Chance," is supported by a cast of unusual excellence, including Jack Holt, the clever young actor who was selected as her leading man, and P. H. Soso, Alice Knudsen and Jack Richardson.

HEAVY REGISTRATION

The registration day passed off quietly in Lacombe, and there was no congestion at the polls. Nearly a thousand persons registered at the two polls. It was a hard day for the young ladies who had to register, especially when they had to answer the question as to their age, and the compilers will be astonished when they compare the ages with the ages of the last census. But in Sunny Alberta the Ladies never grow old, and this fact will be probably taken into consideration.

MISS PINKHAM AT BENTLEY

Miss Pinkham, secretary of the Provincial Red Cross, will speak at Bentley on Friday evening next at 8 o'clock. Her subject will be the work of the Red Cross Society in the Province. All are invited to be present.

NO ATTEMPT BEING MADE TO SAVE MONEY

Things are in a queer state at the parliament buildings in Edmonton. All the ministers are taking joy rides over the world at the expense of the people, and at the same time are cautioning everyone to "economise."

Premier Stewart has taken a trip to England, and is not expected back for some time. Outside of a pleasure jaunt there is nothing Alberta can gain from his wanderings.

Hon. Chas. Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer is leaving Ontario, and is spending an enjoyable time in Toronto at the expense of the province. He is, no doubt taking up the matter of the sale of Alberta bonds with his brother-in-law, a broker there. Hon. Chas. is supposed to be Acting Premier during the absence of Premier Stewart, but has put the affairs of the Province in the hands of one of his stenographers, probably, and things will run along just about as well.

Hon. Duncan Marshall, Minister of Agriculture, is on a tour of the United States, and at present is in Kansas City telling the poor people and the United States how to farm and raise cattle.

Hon. Geo. P. Smith, Provincial Secretary, is touring the eastern Canadian Provinces and the United States. We do not know what particular education he is giving the benighted people down there, but probably something will be put forward to show why his presence is necessary.

It seems to us that in a time of stress such as the present, this hunting is out of place. The Ministers of Alberta have been howling "economy" for the past year, and the loud knows they have put on taxes enough to make everyone economise. The province is in financial difficulties which will take more taxes to overcome, and yet the men who are supposed to be looking after our affairs are throwing the country's money to the winds most lavishly. A very large amount of provincial funds will be necessary to pay the expenses of these gentlemen, while the administration of various departments must suffer by their absence. If a sixty-five dollar a month clerk can run a department, what is the sense of paying a "Minister" four or five thousand dollars a year for the same work.

Mr. Farmer, can you not easily figure out why the Alberta government is compelled to raise your taxes. Just think how many miles of roads could be made with the money they are squandering.

THE ROYAL AIR FORCE

H. G. Morrison of the Merchant's Bank, Chairman of Royal Air Force Committee, at Lacombe, would like to get in touch with young men who wish to enter this branch of the service. He will be pleased to give any information he has at his command. The following letter was received by him this week from headquarters, which explains itself.

Recruiting of Cadets during the last two months has been a very heavy scale, and the Royal Air Force, Canada, has now on hand requirements for the next three months. I have, therefore been obliged to refuse any fresh applications from men who are subject to the military Service Act. The work of the committee which has brought this satisfactory state of affairs is very much appreciated. It is desired to still further extend the operations of the Committee to insure my further supply. In the past, the Royal Air Force Canada, has had a reserve comprised of young men under the age of 21, who go through the regular routine of enlistment and are placed then on the Army Reserve, subject to call for service in the Royal Air Force at a month's notice. By agreement with the military department these men are considered soldiers, and are not subjected to draft. The future regarding recruiting of Cadets lies in this direction and it is desired that the Committee forward applications for this reserve to our recruiting office in exactly the same way as they have been doing with men for immediate enlistment. Men for this Reserve will not have to go through Depot Battalions as has been the case with men under the Military Service Act. I shall be glad to hear from you that your co-operation may be relied upon to build up a very large Reserve in this way, with an estimate of what you think your district can provide within the next six months. The main idea is of course to keep continually in front of the youths that when they come to the age of 18 and 19 they can look forward to joining the Royal Air Force. As soon as youths on our Reserve reach that age they would in ordinary cases register, they will do so, producing at the same time the reserve Card which they will obtain when sworn in, for the Registrar's inspection.

THE SUMMER SESSION FOR TEACHERS

Arrangements are now practically complete for the Summer School for Teachers which will be held on the grounds of the University of Alberta in July and August.

The standard courses in agriculture and gardening, household art, fine and applied art, manual arts, first aid and physical training will be offered as heretofore. According to the regulations of the department of Education British and American teachers whose professional standing is recognized in Alberta are required to complete courses in History and Geography and Canada in order to become fully qualified in the province.

Several courses are being offered this year for the first time. Teachers who wish to specialize in primary work will have an opportunity of securing more complete training in this field. This course will consist of lectures, demonstrations and class discussions. Special attention will be given music, dramatics, story-telling and games. Dr. Coffin of Calgary will have general charge of the instructions in this course. To meet the needs of teachers who may wish to further perfect themselves in oral French a course will be given wholly in this language.

For the first time this year teachers have the opportunity of qualifying for first class certificates at the Summer Session. Three courses of unusual interest are being offered—one in Educational Psychology, one in Administration and a third in Educational Problems.

It has always been the boast of the director that the quality of instruction at the Summer Session has been of the highest character. This high standard will be maintained during the coming session.

HINDENBURG BROKEN DOWN

Geneva, June 18.—The Tribune says it learns from a reliable source that Field Marshal von Hindenburg is suffering from an acute nervous disease, that his mental capacity is much affected, and that he is confined in a private sanatorium. The newspaper adds that Hindenburg took no responsible part in the recent offensive on the western front, the work being chiefly done by Gen. Ludendorff.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the whole system, and snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should enrich your blood with the oil found in Scott's Emulsion, which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from any harmful drugs. Try it—YOU!

RECIPROCAL DRAFT LAW PASSED

Washington, June 24th.—Treaties between Great Britain and the United States for reciprocal operation of army draft law, was ratified by the senate today without a dissenting vote.

The above dispatch means that Canadian in the United States and Americans in Canada come under the laws of those countries, and are subject to draft at once if with in the ages called by either country. This will get the last of the draft evaders.

TRAIN SERVICE TO LAKE

Commencing this week there will be a regular train service to Gull Lake. Four Trains a day will be run, the last after the arrival of the C.P.R. from Calgary. The electric or steam train will meet the 10 o'clock express from Edmonton, the 11:35 from Calgary, and the afternoon train from the north. The round trip fare to the lake from Lacombe is 85c Single fare 50c. A new station has been built at the lake by the government for accommodation of holidaymakers. In addition to the week day service, there will be a regular Sunday service through out the season. Baggage and freight can also be transferred from the C. P. R. to the Gull Lake train.

RAIN SAVES CROPS

The rain came this week just in time to save a large percentage of this year's crop, that had just commenced to burn up. While in the Lacombe district rain was not badly needed, the country west and east was drying out to a serious degree. The rains this week are reported to have been general over most of the Province. The crops around here look as well as they have other seasons and the yield is going to be heavy. A few local hail storms passed over the district a few days ago, doing considerable damage.

NOT CALLING UP THE YOUNG BOYS

As will be seen by the government proclamation published elsewhere in this issue, it is not the intention of the government to call up the 19-20 year old boys at the present time. No further notice will be received by those boys except from the Registrar for Military district No. 13. Soldiers already in the troops will be given harvest leave if the rules regarding the same are complied with.

BILL CALLS THE BLUFF

See—When "Scandinavian Socialists" jumped on me and took in hand to give me life for offering the Kaiser a "place in the sun," I wondered where the fool could be found who had so little sense of humor as to take that letter seriously. I thought "Scandinavian Socialists" must be camouflage for "Teuton" as the latter are almost impervious to humor. Now it seems Hans P. Hansen was that fool and he has added still further to his folly.

As Mr. Hansen was not mentioned in my letter replying to "Scandinavian Socialist," it is impossible that I could have accused him of having got the best of any of my neighbors in any deal. His haste to defend himself against no accusation is peculiar. His statement that one of my neighbors is non compos mentis, looks as if he (Hansen) was on the hunt for trouble.

I gather from Mr. Hansen's letter that I am to put up $25 against him, if I can get more than five per cent. of my neighbors to say he is a crook. His $25.00 goes to the Red Cross. Again I am to put up $25 if he can get 95 per cent. of his neighbors to say I am a nuisance. My $25 goes to the Y.M.C.A. For stupendous, idiotic folly this certainly takes the biscuit. Does Mr. Hansen think his neighbors or mine are so anxious for trouble that they are going to take sides with either of us in this most foolish controversy which he has carried on?

I commend Mr. Hansen's zeal in trying to raise funds for the Red Cross and Y.M.C.A. and will not balk him. I have sent to Mr. W. F. Graham of the Union Bank LaCrosse, the sum of $50, with instructions that when Mr. Hansen covers them with a like amount, the $100 is to be paid to these two societies. Now Mr. Hansen, if you are so anxious about our "brave boys" as you say, and not a cheap windy sport, plank down your $50.

Mr. Hansen says I have always tried to keep down anything that is for the good of the community. That is not true. When the railway was proposed to Rimby I said I would like to see it, but unless it was carried further it would not pay, and I still believe so, and so do many others. I have not taken shares in the Bentley Co. Operative store for my own reasons. These are the only enterprises that might be called for the good of the country that by the wildest stretch of imagination I might be accused of not having boosted. Every year since I have been in Alberta I have donated work to help for better roads, and have done many other things to help along that are not advertised.

"The Bad Lands News" was written in the spirit of satire and with no intention to make mischief. It was started by request and was carried on because people from all directions told me it gave them lots of amusement. So Mr. Hansen's statement that it was written to spread discontent among the neighbors is as wild as his others.

I have never said, or implied that all here are German sympathizers or slackers, and Mr. Hansen cannot point truthfully to any such statement coming from me.

Mr. Hansen thinks these war times too serious for me to write such nonsense for the amusement of others. If he really is so deadly in earnest about the seriousness of the situation, why, instead of calling me to task for my sham letter to the Kaiser, did he not get after some of his neighbors who would not take Victory Bonds because they said they would be of no value after the war? Why does he not get after those in his neighborhood who circulate the alarmist news that they are killing the recruits in Calgary by over-training? Why not get after those who say there is no need to fight, for even in the Germans win they will not come to Canada? Why not get after those who circulate such reports as that Sir Robert Borden has been arrested as a German spy, or that the Germans have captured 75,000 French-Canadians? Why doesn't the patriotic Mr. Hansen get out and reason with those young Scandinavians who are on the draft, and who say they won't go when called up? The police will have to take them. There is a chance to tell them of the noble part they will take in "helping our brave boys at the front" and fire them with his own patriotism.

Yes, Mr. Hansen, had you the great and abounding patriotism you pretend, there was and is yeoman service you can do for your adopted country that will rebound far more to your honor and yet not put such a strain on your brain as this attempt of yours to call me down for trying to amuse others. Mr. Hansen is very fond of declaiming about "our brave boys at the front." What has he done to help them? Negatively he helped them by working against conscription. Negatively he helped them by voting for the return of Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his henchman Henri Bourassa to power. In a positive way he helped by baking a cake which was raffled at a Red Cross Social.

I meet Mr. Hansen on an average of four times a year, and have not been so struck by his mentality as to wish to see him often or so I fail to see why he should have picked on me for this tirade. The whole thing is this—For some reason, unknown to me, Mr. Hansen has it is for Bill Baillie, and "The Kaisers Place in The Sun" was only a mere excuse to shoot off his statements that are untrue and offensive, in a desire to catch his spite.

Hoping soon to see an announcement in the Globe that Hans P. Hansen has lodged his $50.00 with Mr. Graham, I remain, etc., W. Baillie.

NOTE—If this controversy is kept up there is going to be trouble for some of us, and some one may get "beat up" and the editor or has no desire to enter the pugilistic arena during the hot weather. Bill and Hans P. have a lot of open country to carry on their campaign in, and in which trenches can be hurriedly prepared, while we might be cornered up quickly in the narrow confines of Lacombe. So we are not going to take any chances, and we will not publish and further communications on the above subject. Editor or Globe.

VISCOUNT GREY WRITES ABOUT NATIONS LEAGUE

LONDON, June 19.—(British Admiralty, per Wireless Press).—The widest interest will be evinced in a pamphlet on "The League of Nations," written by Viscount Grey, of Fallodon, who was secretary of foreign affairs in the cabinet of Herbert H. Asquith, at the beginning of the European war.

"There is more at stake in the war than the existence of states or empires or the fate of a continent," says Viscount Grey. "The whole of modern civilization is at stake and whether it will perish and be submerged, as has happened to previous civilizations of older types, or whether it will live and progress depends upon whether the nations that are now engaged in this war, and even those that are on-lookers, learn the lessons that the experience of the war may teach them.

"It must be with nations, as with individuals in the great trial of life, they must become better or worse—they cannot stand still. They must learn and profit by experience, rise to greater heights or else sink lower and drop eventually into the abyss, and this war is the greatest trial of which there is any record in history. If the war does not teach mankind new lessons that will so dominate the thoughts and feelings of those who survive it and those who succeed the survivor as to make new things possible, then the war will be the greatest catastrophe as well as the most grievous trial and suffering of which the world has a record."

Viscount Grey lays down two principal conditions which he says must be fulfilled if the league of nations is to be effective. The first is: "The ideal must be adopted with earnestness and conviction by the executive heads of state. It must become an essential part of their practical policy, one of their chief reasons for being, or continuing to be responsible for the policy of their states. They must not adopt it only to render such service to the persons whom it is convenient to please or ungracious to displease. They must lead and not follow; they must compel, if necessary, and not be compelled."

This condition, Viscount Grey thinks is actually fulfilled as regards the executive head of the United States and it will also be found present as regards the entente government, while Austria has publicly shown a disposition to accept the proposal and probably may really welcome it as a safeguard for the future, not only against bold enemies but against Prussian domination. As long, however, as military rule in Germany continues, Germany will oppose a league of nations he says.

"Nothing will change this," Viscount Grey continues, "except conviction in the German people that the use of force causes at least as much suffering to themselves as to others, and that security based upon law and treaty and a sense of mutual advantage is better than the risks, dangers, and suffering of the exerting of supreme power and efforts to obtain it. And this conviction must so work upon the mind of the military party and their policy and ideals from power in Germany."

"Germany has to be convinced that force does not pay, that the aims and policy of her military rules inflict intolerable and also unnecessary suffering on her, and that when the world is free from the menace of this military rule with their sharp swords shining armour, and mailed fists, Germany will find peaceful development assured and preferable to expansion by war."

"Till Germany feels this to be true there can be no league of nations in the sense intended by President Wilson. A league as he desires, must not include Germany and should include no nation that is not perfectly convinced of the advantage and necessity of such a league and is, therefore, not prepared to make the efforts, and if need be the sacrifices, necessary to maintain it."

The second condition, says Viscount Grey, is that governments and not the peoples of states will clearly to it must understand limitations upon the national action of each and may entail some inconvenient obligations. The smaller and weaker nations will have rights that must be respected and upheld by the league. The stronger nations must forgo the right to make their interests prevail against the weaker, by force and all the states must forego the right in any dispute to resort to force before other methods of settlement by conference, conciliation, or if need be, by arbitration, have been tried, this is the limitation.

Force, the writer insists, must be brought to bear upon states, that refuse to settle their disputes by arbitration.

CHILD LOST AND FOUND

Little John Pickard, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pickard of Calgary, had a very disagreeable experience this week, which fortunately will have no bad results. The Pickard family are camped for the season at the McLaurin beach at Gull Lake. On Friday Morning the little fellow, who was playing with other members of the family around the cottage disappeared, and when his parents missed him no trace of him could be found. After searching for a couple of hours, the farmers in the neighborhood were called upon for assistance, and in a short time hundreds of willing men were scouring the wooded country in the vicinity. The search was kept up all Friday afternoon and throughout the night without success, and on Saturday afternoon the citizens of Lacombe turned out in force, and under leaders went over every foot of brush and swamp for miles around. The search was kept up continuously all day Saturday, tired groups of men being relieved by fresh volunteers but it was not until seven o'clock Saturday evening that the joyful word was sent out that the little one had been found, and that he was all right. To say that the searchers were overjoyed is putting it mildly.

To Mr. R. Adams a well known farmer of the district, fell the horror of discovering the wanderer. With a party Mr. Adams was scouring the district on section 11 over two miles from the child's home, when he caught a glimpse of what he thought was the child's curly head above the tall grass of a slough about half a mile away. His companions thought he was mistaken, but Russ said he would investigate, and on going along found that his eyes had not deceived him, and that the lost was found. The youngster was standing in the water of the slough, which was nearly up to his waist, and there is no doubt but that for Mr. Adams discovery, all would have been over with him in a short time. He was in a weak condition after his thirty-six hours exposure without food or water, and had he fallen in the slough the last chance of finding him would have passed.

Taking him in his arms Mr. Adams carried him to a farm house, where a little nourishment was given him and he was then carried home to his overjoyed parents.

How the boy managed to get so far away from home through the rough country he had to travel, is a mystery, as grown men had their troubles getting through the tangles of fallen timber. About three hundred men took part in the search and it proved that there was not one man too many.

FORD MOTOR TRUCKS

M. C. Platt of Rimby, is one of the first farmers of this district to use a motor truck in his business. On Friday he brought to Lacombe a load of seven large porkers. It took him just two hours and fifteen minutes to cover the distance—35 miles. The hogs arrived in splendid shape, and Mr. Platt said that the saving in shrinkage more than pays for the expense of marketing by motor. It usually takes from twelve to fifteen hours to make the trip to Rimby by wagon, but so far as Mr. Platt is concerned this hard trip is a thing of the past, and he is going to do it the Ford way from now on. He is agent for the Co. at Rimby, and if you are interested you should see him.

MONEY FOR RED CROSS

The Red Cross of Alberta has found it necessary to ask the people of Alberta to make a special effort to raise money as much more is needed than what they have in sight at the present time. A meeting was held in Edmonton on the 20th and it was decided to ask each Constituency in the Province to contribute what would be its share of the amount needed. The constituency of Lacombe will be asked to contribute something over $14,000, for year ending Oct. 1, 1918.
